TWENTY MILLION CALIFORNIA FIRE LOSS

U. OF C. CITY RESIDENCES IN RUINS

Soldiers Guarding Burned Area Under Orders to 'Shoot to Kill'

By S. M. HOLLAND
For International News Service

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Ten thousand persons are homeless and more than six square miles of Berkeley's most beautiful residence section is a desolate heap of smoking, smouldering debris today as the aftermath of a fiery whirlwind that swept down upon the city with appalling suddenness yesterday afternoon.

One of the miracles of the catastrophe is that no loss of life was reported. Only fifty persons were injured and not many seriously. Property damage is conservatively estimated at $10,000,000.

Under command of Colonel Eddy, sixty-five regular army soldiers from the Presidio and Fort Scott, national guardsmen and members of R. O. T. C. units today patrolled the fire-swept area which is under strict martial law.

"Shoot Looters on Sight"

Orders were issued to shoot looters on sight. Some shots were reported to have been fired by guards during the night. Entrance to the burned area by residents is possible only through military pass and then for only a ten minute period. Sightseers must remain outside a two-mile zone drawn by the guards. It was announced military control of the area would continue indefinitely.

The fire, which will go down as the most disastrous in the west since the San Francisco disaster in 1906, started at 2:30 p. m., when a devastating grass blaze worked its way over the Berkeley hills and enveloped several isolated dwellings far up the hillside district.

The University of California was unharmed, though at times the famous institution was seriously menaced. The R. O. T. C. hall caught fire, it was reported, but students saved the structure.

So rapid was the advance of the flames and so widespread was the area involved that firemen were virtually helpless, in spite of their frantic efforts to check the fire.

SICILY AND MALTA SHAKEN IN QUAKE

Severe Temblors Do Big Property Damage; No Lives Are Lost

SYRACUSE, Italy, Sept. 18.—A violent earthquake shock was felt in Italy at 7:30 o'clock this morning. No casualties were reported.

MALTA, Sept. 18.—A heavy earthquake shock was felt here at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The chief British naval base in the Mediterranean is located on Malta island. The ground vibrated for several seconds.

No casualties were reported, but the people were highly alarmed. Many buildings were shaken, among them churches that were filled with worshippers. Panic broke out among the congregations.

The tremors lasted twelve seconds. They were severest in the region of Valetta where every house was damaged. There are no reports of buildings being destroyed, however.

There is a big British naval depot at Valetta and large warehouses for British naval supplies. There are always numerous British warships in the Valetta harbor.

NEW PARKING ORDINANCE PLANNED

Police Chief Fraser Tells Merchants of Proposed Regulations

PASSAGE of a one hour parking ordinance for cars within the business district of Glendale was offered as a solution of the parking problem, at the meeting of the Glendale Merchants' Association yesterday in Jensen's Egyptian Village.

Col J. D. Fraser, chief of police, outlined the terms of a tentative ordinance that is at present under consideration by the city council.

Reveals Plans

Colonel Fraser stated that it is planned at present to ask for an ordinance to cover parking within the area bounded by California and Colorado streets, on the north and south, and between Louise street and Central avenue on the east and west, in which cars will be permitted to park for one hour, instead of three hours, as permitted under the present law.

In this area drivers would be allowed to park on one side of the street head on to the curb, and parallel to the curb on the other side, except on Brand boulevard.

An effort is also to be made, Colonel Fraser stated, to set aside fifty feet in each block in the district included in the proposed ordinance, to be used as a loading zone for commercial vehicles. No time limit would be set for the time which each vehicle might occupy the loading zone, but it would be the aim of the police to see that the privilege was not abused in any way or that the drivers of commercial trucks would not leave their machines standing in the loading zone while they transacted business in the (Continued on Page 3)

OKLAHOMA'S STATE FAIR CANCELLED

U. S. Refuses to Hinder Local Officials From Driving Out K. K. K.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The federal government does not propose to intervene or to take any action whatever in the controversy in Oklahoma between Governor Walton and the Ku Klux Klan, it was announced officially at the White House this afternoon. Administration officials explained that the government regarded the Oklahoma situation as purely a local matter to be handled by the governor in any way he saw fit.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 18.—The state legislature of Oklahoma will assemble in special session either late this week or early next week, regardless of military or other edict or environment. This statement is made upon unimpeachable authority.

Hundreds of telegrams passed between legislators yesterday and last night. By 10 o'clock sixty of the 109 members of the lower house had signified their intention of attending the extraordinary session and the information given International News Service was that the senate was in a majority in agreement to be present.

Suspends State Fair

Governor J. C. Walton today vigorously followed up his action of placing the entire state under martial law "to whip the Ku Klux Klan and drive the invisible empire from the state."

Peaceful Oklahoma City, scarcely heading the political upheaval which at first was taken "with a grain of salt," awoke this morning to face another restriction—the indefinite suspension of the annual state fair, which was to begin Saturday.

Allies Keep Peace in Balkan Countries

PARIS, Sept. 18.—The allies have intervened to prevent a quarrel between Jugoslavia and Bulgaria and to save the peace of the Balkans, it was learned at the French seized mines near Gneisenau and Schornhorst and the Preussen-Ewing railroad lines.

Both countries have agreed to a conference at Sofia October 1, to put into effect the so-called "Nish agreement" to prevent frontier troubles with irregular bands.

Sofia and Belgrade have been exchanging notes for several days on the border situation, the latter threatening war if Bulgarian comitadjis invade Serbian soil.

Hungary has promised to remain aloof, no matter what happens in the Balkans.

GLENDAL GIRL'S ACCOUNT OF FIRE

Eloene Truitt Is Eyewitness to Flames as They Sweep Berkeley

By ELOENE TRUITT

(University of California student and eyewitness of disastrous Berkeley fire who arrived in Glendale shortly before noon today and told her story to the Glendale Evening News.)

A smouldering red stained the sullen sky as I left Berkeley last night to board the Southern Pacific Owl, bound for Glendale, after witnessing the worst fire the city has ever seen.

The University buildings had been saved, after terrible hours when it seemed they were doomed, but a number of frat and sorority houses had been wiped away by a scarlet broom, one-fourth of the North Berkeley business district had gone up in a roaring cyclone-funnel of smoke and flame, and hundreds of homes, among them many beautiful foothill residences of the wealthy, had been reduced to ugly ash piles.

Sweeps Into City

The fire, which had been burning in the canyon since Sunday, rushed on a high wind at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon, September 17, and swept down into the business district of North Berkeley.

The heat was terrible and the whole town was in a red haze. Ashes were falling as from a volcano. There was a peculiar hum vibration in the air that hinted of earthquakes. Everyone had a feeling of doom.

All available fire-fighting equipment in Berkeley was rushed to the conflagration area and additional equipment was dispatched from San Francisco. But it was all useless. The terrible fire, driven by a fitful wind that at times blew a gale, did as it chose.

University Saved

Finally, on a whim, it turned and swept back into the canyon, like some awful monster reeking with blood, and the University of California was saved. But my heart ached, when I left at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, to see the terrible damage done. Among the many beautiful homes destroyed was that of Professor Benjamin Ide Wheeler, for whom Wheeler Hall is named.

Miss Truitt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Truitt, 317 West Doran street. She has come home to transfer to the Southern Branch, University of California. She arrived in Glendale at 10 o'clock this morning.

Colorado Scientist Minimizes Temblor

DENVER, Sept. 18.—"Only a local surface phenomenon, and not at all serious or dangerous," was the declaration here today of Father Forestall, in charge of the seismograph at Regis college, regarding reports of an earthquake in Aspen, Colo., 90 miles west of here last night.

Reports from Aspen said three distinct shocks were heard during a period of one and one-half hours. The shock caused dishes to rattle, timbers in old buildings creaked, and several dwellings shook.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The comptroller of the currency today issued a call for the condition of national banks of September 14.

FOREST FLAMES LEAVE SIX NORTHERN COUNTIES IN ASHEN DESOLATION

Hundreds of Ranches Swept by Holocaust; Many Resorts Wiped Out; Telephone Service to Stricken Areas Is Demoralized

BY ELLIS H. MARTIN
For International News Service

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—After taking a property toll which may reach $20,000,000 forest fires which resulted in the destruction or damage of six Northern California towns, the ravaging of hundreds of ranches and the burning of hundreds of summer homes and resorts in twenty counties were reported under control late today.

The high wind which late yesterday and last night carried destruction before it abated during the day and the tired fire fighters were able to check, in almost every instance, the menacing flames. A dozen towns including Sonoma City, Bolinas, Fairfax which appeared doomed in the morning are all safe this afternoon. Telephone communications are demolished.

Berkeley, stricken university city, sustained a property loss of from $6,000,000 to $10,000,000. Relief measures for the 10,000 homeless there were gotten under way rapidly and there is no suffering.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—With six northern California towns and cities either completely devastated or badly damaged by fire resulting from forest and grass blazes, and a dozen others endangered, thousands of fire fighters including soldiers and marines, today were endeavoring to check the most disastrous series of conflagrations in years.

The fires are raging in twenty counties. The heaviest damage was at Berkeley where the property loss was estimated today by the city manager at $5,000,000.

The towns that burned in the path of the flames include Woodacre, Marin county; Cavedale, Sonoma county; Eldorado, Eldorado county; Forest Knolls, Marin county, and Boyes Springs, Sonoma county, in addition to a large section of Berkeley.

More than a dozen big summer resorts, between fifty and 100 fine summer homes, and scores of stock ranches, vineyards and other Sonoma county show places have gone up in flames, and thousands of acres of timber and brush land burned over.

Some Fires Under Control
All of the fires sweeping Sonoma county were reported today under control. The damage in the famous Valley of the Moon country was estimated today at $1,000,000, and that in the Russian river section at $500,000.

The reported loss of five lives at Cavedale was still unconfirmed today.

Among the towns reported early today to be endangered by the blaze are Fairfax, San Anselmo, Ross, Lagunitas, Bolinas, Ignacio and Noyato, Marin county; Guerneville and Sonoma City in Sonoma county; Fairfield in Solano county. (Continued on Page 3)

They next visited Taku Glacier, which is a mile wide and 300 feet high, one of the most remarkable sights they had seen thus far. The next city to be visited was Skagway, which is nearly deserted except for a few inhabitants and curios supported by the vast number of tourists.
Their itinerary next took them to the Yukon. They particularly enjoyed the trip to Dawson, visiting the White pass and a hydroelectric gold mine and refinery. On the return trip they visited West Taku lake and Victoria.
Mr. and Mrs. Pearce state that, although they had a very enjoyable trip, they were glad to return to Glendale.

PEIRCES TEL OF TRIP TO ALASKA
Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Pearce of 328 West Elk avenue returned home recently from an interesting five weeks' tour of British Columbia, Alaska and Canada. Their itinerary included Seattle, Wash., from where they went to Vancouver via boat. They also visited Banff. Here they joined the Raymond Whitcomb and Cooper company. They spent several days in Vancouver, enjoying a motor trip through the mountains and to the buffalo park, owned and maintained by the government. They visited Lake Louise, and Glacier, where the snow and ice reach thirty to sixty feet on the level during the winter months and traces of which remain until the first of June.
From Vancouver they boarded the Princess Alice, a Canadian Pacific boat, stopping at Albert, and Prince Rupert en route to Ketchikan, Alaska. Here they enjoyed watching the large fishing boats come in loaded with tons of salmon.
They next visited Taku Glacier, which is a mile wide and 300 feet high, one of the most remarkable sights they had seen thus far. The next city to be visited was Skagway, which is nearly deserted except for a few inhabitants and curios supported by the vast number of tourists.

Removing the Cause of BRONCHITIS
Weekly Health Talk No. 101.
By Drs. Eble & Eble, Ds. C.
The man who has never suffered from bronchitis does not know the pain of being unable to breathe easily and deeply. A cold settles in the bronchial tubes. There is a shortening of the breath and a reduced amount of breath flow. The cause is removed the bronchial trouble becomes more and more permanent, weakening the entire body and inviting serious, and often fatal, diseases.
The cause is in the spine and the chiropractor is able to find the disturbed spinal conditions and restore normal nerve flow. The cause is reached and Nature is given a fair chance to restore the bronchial tubes to a healthy condition.
Not only does the bronchitis disappear, but the danger of more serious lung ailments such as pneumonia, influenza and tuberculosis, is at the same time averted.
UNCLE BEN SAYS:
"Hurrah! to get ahead. Nervy, is a heap sight better than hurrying to catch up."

20 MILLION TOLL TAKEN BY FIRES

Valley of Moon Is Ruined as Flames Sweep Six
Northern Counties

county and Diamond Springs
in Eldorado county.

Among the summer resorts
wiped out which were nationally known were Agua Caliente, El Verano and Boyes Springs.

Pull of Smoke Over State
A pull of smoke today hung over the entire state from Santa Barbara north. Near Santa Barbara a great forest fire, which already has burned over 100,000 acres,
was being fought.

North of San Francisco
every available means of communication brought appeals for aid from stricken sections.
Hokins used wireless to broadcast an appeal for 500 soldiers to aid in fighting the flames menacing the little town. Wire communication was crippled and the full extent of the destruction may not be known for days.

Hope was held out today that the fires may be checked, as the high wind, which reached a velocity at some places of ninety miles an hour yesterday, was greatly abated.

Soldiers Fighting Fire
In Marin and Contra Costa counties marines and soldiers joined in fighting the fires, and it is probable detachments will be sent today to threatened points.
Regular and national guard troops were on guard duty also in the burned area at Berkeley.

Dozens of narrow escapes from flames were reported in northern California. When the flames swept down the Sonoma valley, John Cadral saved the lives of his wife and three children by lowering them in a well.

Burning of railroad trestles delayed aid sent to Boyes Springs from San Francisco, but the motor apparatus proceeded under its own power.

In Napa county 50 tubercular patients were hurried from sanitariums endangered by the fire.
In that county alone damage was estimated at nearly $250,000.

The most menacing situations,
however, today existed in So-нома and Marin counties. In both counties all able-bodied men have been appealed to aid in fighting the flames.

Million Dollar Loss
in Valley of Moon

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 18.—Blackened ruins throughout the Valley of the Moon and the beautiful Russian river district, famous resort sections, today bore mute evidence of the fury of the fires which late yesterday and last night turned Sonoma county into a veritable furnace.

Loss in the Valley of the Moon
was estimated today at $1,000,- 000. In the Russian river district the loss was placed at $500,000.
For a time last night it seemed as though the entire county would burn. A blood red moon looked down on a score of fires which sent up a dense smoke. The air was filled with flying embers,
some of the size of small tree limbs. At Boyes Springs where the big summer hotel and the entire business section were wiped out, hundreds of guests left scarcely clad carrying what belongings they could gather together. The hotel was believed safe when a sheet of flames jumped a space of fifty feet to its roof, and in a few minutes it was doomed.

Similar scenes were reported from Petters Springs and Agua Caliente.

Belated reports today told of the destruction of the pioneer town of Markham in Western So-нома county including the large hotel and new Virden lumber mill.

At Boyes Springs a check today showed more than 100 cottages and homes in ashes in addition to the business section. The home of Duffy Lewis, well known baseball manager, was destroyed.

The flames were sky high and the ghastly glare they cast was visible for miles around the shores of San Francisco bay.

Among the houses destroyed
were those of Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president emeritus of the University of California; of Chester H. Rowell, noted California editor, and the former Berkeley home of the late Mrs.
Phoebe Apperson Hearst on Leconte avenue.

Refugees at University
All buildings on the University of California campus were immediately thrown open to the thousands of refugees. Conspicuous service was rendered by hundreds of university students who aided firemen in their battle with the flames and helped citizens save belongings from doomed dwellings.

Reinforcements of both apparatus and men were rushed from Oakland and San Francisco and this aid was a material factor in finally controlling the disastrous blaze.

house is burned down.

Against Double Parking
Colonel Fraser contended that the double parking system is impracticable, as it would tend still further to cause traffic congestion and delay the removal of other cars from the curb.

It is estimated by the police that one hour ought to be sufficient length of time to permit anyone to transact his business in any of the business places within the prescribed zone, but he declared that it is not the intention of the authorities to harass the shoppers who have business to transact and especially those who come from out of town to do business with the local merchants.

The proposed ordinance is still under consideration by the council and is subject to amendment along the lines that will work out for the best solution of the present parking problem.

Merchants' Report
F. C. Butler, chairman of the parking committee of the Glendedale Merchants' association, presented the report of his committee, recommending that a one-hour parking period be allowed between Wilson and Harvard streets on Brand boulevard, and between Central avenue and Louise street on Broadway. Mr. Butler's committee also recommended that double parking be permitted in case the driver remained in the car and the stop made behind the row of cars at the curb was of brief duration.

"The police," he stated, "could start marking the parked cars at 10 a. m. and could begin tagging the offenders by 11 a. m., continuing this practice until 6 p. m.
No unloading zones were provided for in the report of the committee,
as it was contended that the allies behind the deliveries of merchandise for the delivery of merchandise."

Mr. Butler pointed out that the one-hour zone suggested in his report could be extended as the need arises, and the suggestions embodied in the report, which was accepted by the association, will be presented to the City Council
at an early meeting.

Need Traffic Rules
Colonel Fraser also emphasized that it is not the desire of the city authorities to impose any hardships on the owners of cars or to interfere in any way with the business of the local merchants,
but it must be realized, he said,
that Glendale has passed from the hitching post stage and is now a rapidly growing city that must adapt itself to existing conditions and facilitate the handling of its traffic according to new and proven methods.

The association agreed to donate $50 to the relief of the Japanese earthquake sufferers.

Scrimmage practice was held for the first time yesterday on Glendale Union High school's football field. The heavyweight aspirants were put through ten minutes' regular playing and many were the interesting tangles.

Howard Elliott showed up best in backfield work, slipping through the opposing players several times. Brucker and Zaun on the line also showed up well.

Coach Norman C. Hayhurst is teaching the candidates some of the more or less intricate plays that are to be used this year. The lightweight material is shaping up better now, about thirty-five men out. No scrimmage has been held yet with them, but Coach "Nuco" Butterfield is getting the various line-ups ready for the rough-and-tumble.

ALL CATALANIAN MAYORS ARRESTED

General Primo Rivera and Military Directory See
'Friends' Are Safe

By VIRGILIO COLCHIRA
For International News Service
MADRID, Sept. 18.—The military directory today ordered the arrest of virtually all the mayors in Catalonia. Almost all are friends of General Primo Rivera, head of the revolutionary government and captain general of Catalonia.
Contrary reports were current regarding Senor Alba. One was that he had sent a letter to General Primo Rivera saying he would never return because he believed Spain would become a country like Mexico, with frequent revolutions. Another was that he had promised to come back if granted a speedy and impartial trial.

Strong Rule
A. P. Moore, the American ambassador, believes the new government will achieve success Spanish circles quote him as saying Spain has not had such a strong government in twenty-five years.

King Alfonso has signed the decree establishing 45,000 Somatenes, an organization similar to the Fascist in Italy or the home guards established in the United States in war time.

The king also signed a decree suppressing ministerial undersecretaries, thus saving the treasury 3,537,000,000 pesetas annually.

Former Premier Alhucemas is still in Spain. He has not been arrested.

The first formal meeting of the military directory will be held tomorrow. The king will preside.
He will address a warning to labor not to obey agitators who are trying to exploit the present situation in Spain.

INDEX TO COMMUNITY LOYALTY PAGE

PAGE 4 OF THIS ISSUE OF THE EVENING NEWS

Of course when you want to buy merchandise of any kind you are anxious to patronize a Glendale dealer. When you wish to employ professional skill it is your desire to secure a local man. When repair work is needed it is to your advantage to have the work done by mechanics near home. The object of this index column is to refer you to the Glendale Loyalty Page on page 4 of this issue where you will find listed a large number of merchants, tradesmen and professional men who are real boosters for Glendale. While the Community Loyalty Page will appear in The Evening News one day every week, yet readers are advised to cut it out and hold it for reference for the purpose of ascertaining names and locations of business firms in Glendale.

All Citizens Should Unite in Program of Community Building

There are few Glendalians who are not proud of Glendale and of every element and factor that lead to its further growth and importance. It is strange that so many people have a pride in their home community, yet take an impersonal view of the things vital to the existence of the city. "They" have done this and "they" should do that is the way the advancement and the needs of the city are discussed.

You may not be able to do any of the big, spectacular things that mean a long step forward in civic development and influence, but there are obligations and duties that are of great consequence in the city's well-being in which we all can unite.

Everyone spends some money and everyone who wants to see Glendale grow in population and influence should see to it that as much of this money as possible stays in Glendale and helps to build up the community.

The assertion that money spent with home merchants helps the home town has become so hackneyed that many people, when they see the statement, do not stop to analyze or read further. They think it some scheme of the merchants to get more business. It takes but little reasoning, however, to establish the fact that no community can be built up without trade, and that money spent outside of Glendale can never do Glendale any good.

We (not they) can make Glendale a great city if we (not they) unite to build up our local business concerns and industries and let outside communities take care of themselves.

Glendale's superior advantages have attracted a class of people who want the best and who are accustomed to have it. The merchants represented on this page have long since established themselves on a plane where they can cater to this class of trade and now they do not hesitate to ask for local patronage.

Let us (not them) keep our money in Glendale as far as possible.

MISSING MAN IS SAFE, SAYS WIFE

Fred E. Hoyt to Return Home After Completion of Business Deal

That Fred E. Hoyt of 1140 1/2 East California avenue, who disappeared September 10, is safe and will return home when he has attended to certain business matters of which she is aware, was the statement given by Mrs. Hoyt. This sets at rest certain wild rumors and fears of foul play, accounting for the action of a man well known in the community, who always enjoyed a reputation for sobriety and honor. The Glendale Evening News was aware of the facts in the case yesterday, but refrained from making them public.

Mr. Hoyt was local manager of the Dixon Sash and Door company, having held this position for over a year. He came to Glendale from Pasadena and was a property owner and a representative member of the community belonging to the Exchange club and other organizations of this city.

While admitting that financial worries had preyed on her husband's mind of late, Mrs. Hoyt stated that there was no insupportable ploom involved in that the family was amply provided for.

On the day following his disappearance, September 11, Mrs. Hoyt states that she received a telegram from her husband, assuring her he was all right and that he would return home as soon as possible.

Plan to Spend Three Years in Australia

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vaughan and four children, George Edward, Mary Ethel, Muriel Winifred and Ellen Maude, of 505 West Salem street, are making final preparations for leaving Glendale on Friday on the first part of a trip to Australia, where they will probably reside for three years in Sydney, where Mr. Vaughan has taken a long contract for architectural terra cotta work.

"It will be a fine experience for all of us," says Mr. Vaughan, "and especially for the children whose ages range from twelve to six years. They will attend school in Sydney and the trip and residence in a foreign country will be of educational value."

From Glendale the Vaughans will go north to San Francisco and Portland and visit at their old home in Seattle, Wash.

They will sail from Vancouver, B. C., October 5, on the liner Niagara, and will stop at Honolulu, the Fiji islands and New Zealand.

Southern Branch Looms on Athletic Horizon

Some day—not so many years from now—the University of California Southern branch in Los Angeles will be turning out football teams which will make the parent institution at Berkeley jealous.

In adding a third year to all courses this term the branch is breaking away from the junior college and soon will be a dyed-in-the-wool university. The legislature two years hence is expected to add a full college curriculum.

Even now material for pennant winning teams in statewide and interscholastic competition is far from being dreamed among the Cub Californians. This is due to the fact that students would rather attend in Southern California where climatic conditions are most favorable—particularly for athletics.

Gridiron games elsewhere must be played off-turf in rain or snow while here the weather seldom interferes with schedule.

'Caseys' Will Witness Athletic Program

A keen interest is being expressed by Knights of Columbus in the athletic program to be presented after the regular meeting tomorrow night by Carl O. Johnson, athletic instructor of the New York Athletic club.

Routine business will occupy the early part of the evening and later the athletic demonstrations will be given.

THE PENNANT RACE

While the Yanks postponed for another day clinching the pennant, the Giants widened the gap between them and the Reds and Pirates.

The Yanks clinch things today if they trim the Indians, needing but a lone game to accomplish the task.

The Giants are now four and a half games in front of the Reds and five and a half games ahead of the Pirates.

In order to beat out the Giants the Reds must win 12 of their remaining 13 contests and the Pirates 14 of their 15 games, provided the Giants win only 6 of the 12 games they have to play. In this event the Reds and Pirates would be tied for the pennant with 95 victories and 59 defeats.

Walter Johnson got credit for both of the Senators' victories over the Browns, relieving Mar 4 and gaining an easy verdict in the second 12 to 2.

The Yankees failed to put the crusher on the American league championship when they lost to the Indians and Sherrod Smith, 6 to 2.

CANCEL TWILIGHT LEAGUE CONTEST

Removal of Light Wires to Permit Football Play Halts Schedule

The games scheduled in the Twilight Baseball League, sponsored by Community Service, on the Glendale Union high school grounds, have had to be discontinued because of the necessity for the removal of the light wires across the field in anticipation of the start of football practice, as there was an element of danger for the football players in keeping the wires across the field.

For this reason it will be impossible to complete the schedule and no trophy can be awarded, according to R. Ernest Tucker, secretary of Community Service, and the series will be discontinued until after the football season.

The Ford team holds the lead in the club standing with five games won and none lost, with the City Engineers and the Newton Electric tied for second place with four games won and one lost, each.

Secretary Tucker states that those who are interested in volleyball will be given a chance to join in this form of sport, for the lights on the grounds can be arranged to permit the game to be played out-of-doors, and it is expected that several teams will be organized in connection with the night school that is to be held at the Glendale Union high school.

The basketball teams of the night school will shortly be formed, under the direction of Coach Normal C. Hayhurst.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Declaring the strike illegal and without sanction of the international union, George L. Berry, president of the International Pressmen's Union of North America, today voiced the determination of the union to "execute and publish" the newspapers of New York City.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A strike of 2500 pressmen today tied up practically every newspaper in New York City.

The walkout was the culmination of eighteen months of strife over wages and working conditions. Last year's award by Judge Martin B. Manton, federal arbitrator, has been the bone of contention. The pressmen decided finally not to abide by its terms.

A new agreement was to have been submitted to members of the local union of the International Web Pressmen's union last night by Major George L. Berry, but Berry could not be found at the time promised, and a strike vote was immediately taken.

Conferences with representatives of the pressmen were planned this morning, publishers hoping to effect an agreement in time to issue afternoon editions.

Many Ads Left Out
As a result of the walkout, many early editions were eliminated altogether. Others were considerably curtailed. News was boiled to a minimum. Advertisements were slashed and many thousands of dollars' worth were rejected.

The strike, publishers said, was totally unexpected and was called despite instructions of the international union that the men remain at work pending conclusion of negotiations for a new contract.

Major Berry today declined to comment on the strike. He said he did not know when he would submit the new agreement to publishers and pressmen.

S. L. GILLAN SENDS TWIG OF HEATHER

Alex Mitchell Receives Favor From Bonnie Scotland in Letter

A breath of "Bonnie Scotland" comes with a twig of Scotch heather and a small thistle, enclosed in a note from S. L. Gillan of 203 West Maple street, written in Edinburgh to Alexander Mitchell of 2001 Kenneth road.

Mr. Gillan writes: "The inclosed bit of heather and the thistle were picked by me yesterday near Rob Roy's grave, in the Highlands. Edinburgh is by far the finest city we have seen on the trip, and if the weather was better the trip in Scotland would be perfect."

"We will not go to Aberdeen this trip, for our time is limited. In a few days we go to Belfast, and will be there and in north Ireland for a few days."

On Way to America
"We sail from Belfast September 1, on the Doric, and will land in Canada. I have to be in New York and Washington on business late in September, so will probably not reach home until early in October."

"My father is enjoying the trip every bit as much as I am. He spent yesterday in the Highlands reciting the 'Lady of the Lake' as we were passing through the scenes made famous by Roderick Dhu. He enjoys his hot Scotch every night at supper, too."

"Remember me to any of my friends you may meet."

A message from Mrs. Gillan this morning stated that Mr. Gillan and his father, S. Y. Gillan of Milwaukee, Wis., who accompanied him overseas, arrived in Quebec, Canada, September 10, and that they are now in New York.

After spending some time in Washington and Virginia, Mr. Gillan will come west and will arrive in Glendale probably October 1.

COMMENT That's All

Beautiful Berkeley's Grief
Neglected Schools Crowded
Neglected Children of U. S.
Honor to Rice Growers

By Gil A. Cowan
BEAUTIFUL Berkeley—its university campanile standing in a sun-kissed haze of smoke—takes account of one of the most disastrous fires in the history of the state, barring, of course, the San Francisco conflagration.

Hundreds of homeless people, scores of injured fire fighters, are beginning to realize that only desperate efforts and unlimited aid of sister cities around the bay saved the University of California and the college town from complete destruction. The fire started in the hills near the city.

The Glendale Evening News gave the people of this city the first information regarding the fire, and until late at night, it was giving the latest facts obtainable. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon it appeared that the business section was doomed.

And by 10 o'clock the gladsome news was received that the fire had finally been controlled after a terrible property loss, not to mention injuries and death. Relief work was carried on throughout the night, and the students of the university played a big part in aiding bewildered officers in keeping order.

The International News Service again scored a remarkable "news beat" over all competitors last night in the Southern California field. It gave The Glendale Evening News a graphic account of the fire at 5:20 p. m., which was printed and on the streets within thirty minutes, a record achievement under the circumstances.

Incidentally, The Glendale Evening News' account was more complete and more accurate than Los Angeles papers circulated hours later. It demonstrates that The Glendale Evening News lives up to its motto of the Latest, FIRST.

Glendale schools are establishing new records in registration. That is to be expected. The younger generation becomes more numerous as the population increases.

With 1700, in round figures, attending Glendale Union High school and 4300 in the grammar grades, it is not unreasonable to plan for housing 7500 pupils during the next year. We wonder if Glendale schools' seating capacity can care for that number without split sessions?

It would appear that every school building which can be obtained is necessary. For it hardly seems that Glendale can build fast enough.

However, California at large takes excellent care of its children as compared with other states. At times we sometimes think opportunity is lavished upon them, without due appreciation. The Santa Ana Register says, regarding "Neglected Children":

"Secretary of Labor Davis told the Alabama legislature that there are 500,000 'neglected children' in the United States today—children living in such destitution, squalor and bad family environment that they have no chance for normal development. The response showed that his appeal struck home."

"Half a million, a large number in itself, seems small when compared with the total number of children in the country. It may be as much as two per cent. All the more striking, therefore, Secretary Davis' further statement that from these 500,000 children are recruited eighty per cent of the nation's criminals."

"Children, of course, are their own justification for anything that can be done for them. Every child has a right to a chance in life, and to the pursuit of happiness with some hope of attainment. But it is plain from the figures how society's own interest is bound up with service to those children. The little minority, neglected, may do vast harm to all the rest, as one little point of infection in the human body may bring illness and death."

At times when disaster overtakes a city, state or nation there are those who think first of personal profit, rather than service. Many did not respond to the Japanese relief fund as they should.

There are, however, in California a group of growers to be complimented, and the San Francisco Chronicle does the task in the following words:

"The rice growers of this state have a rather large surplus of the rice crop of 1922, which was moving slowly, although growers are anxious to sell. We raise mainly Japanese varieties and Japan is one of the best markets for our rice growers."

"It is stated that, upon the first news of the calamity which has befallen Japan, brokers hitherto indifferent rushed to the growers' headquarters to buy rice. Obviously they wanted it for the immediate profit to be made by selling to starving Japanese."

"All honor to the California rice growers, who turned down these cormorants flat and are holding their entire crop for the Red Cross without increase of price. It seems impossible that men should seek to personally profit from such a calamity as has befallen Japan."

A program of vocal and instrumental numbers will be presented during the evening, and cards and dancing will also form a part of the entertainment, the music to be furnished by Kelly's Shrine orchestra.

One of the features of the entertainment and program will be original readings by Mrs. George W. Pierce of 207 East Maple street, who is noted for her ability along this line.

S. R. O. SIGNS SOON
AT GLENDALE HIGH

Packing in Pupils Until New Buildings Are Ready for Use

Glendale Union High school this morning commenced the second full school week of the term with 114 more pupils in attendance than indicated the opening day, which indicates that the enrollment before the end of the term will reach the 2,000 mark. And that will mean "standing room only."

Seventeen hundred pupils are expected to be enrolled before the end of this week. Yesterday thirty-two additional students registered. They boosted the total enrollment to 1,684. Owing to the fact that many families have not settled down yet after the vacation period, the daily enrollment of new pupils is anticipated for several weeks.

Classes Are Problem
Late comers are having some difficulty in arranging their program, as the proverbial "The early bird gets the worm" holds good in the selection of classes this year at the high school. First students to apply were the first to be admitted to the most desirable classes, and others were obliged to pursue their studies in less desirable classes—meaning those which convene early in the morning or late in the afternoon.

The heavy demand for history this term has made necessary the appointment of another teacher to the faculty. This position has been accepted by John Klenle, who has taught at Colton High school for the past four years. Mr. and Mrs. Klenle are moving to Glendale immediately.

Another Puzzle
Construction of the new high school plant is proceeding as rapidly as possible, in the opinion of Principal George U. Moyse. The problem as to just where to place the athletic field is still confronting the board of trustees. The most economical way to place it, so far as grading is concerned, would be east and west. This means that the afternoon sun would be in the eyes of players on one of the opposing teams in all late afternoon games. Therefore, placing the field north and south is being favored.

'Grandma' Hagey Celebrates 98th Birthday in Glendale;
Member of News Sunset Club

By KATHERINE VIRGINIA SINKS
Of The Evening News Staff

GREETINGS to Mrs. Susanna Hagey of 372 West Burchett street, 98 years old today, Glendale's oldest non-native resident, and second oldest member of The Glendale Evening News Sunset Club! With Mama Nanita Verdugo Chobolla of Montrose, who is said to be 117 years old, "Grandma" Hagey occupies a place of honor in Glendale and southern California.

Glendale people who recall a quaint little old woman, with her tiny figure neatly costumed in plain-styled black dress, black bonnet and sweet smile, have seen "Grandma" Hagey on the streets of Glendale with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. G. Sackett, with whom she makes her home.

Bonnet Adds to Charm
"Grandma" is a Mennonite and the cunning white lace bonnet she wears in the house, her black satin bonnet she wears outside and her plain-styled clothes but add to her charm and picturesqueness.

It was within the past year that she and her daughter paid a visit to the cunning white lace bonnet she wears in the house, her black satin bonnet she wears outside and her plain-styled clothes but add to her charm and picturesqueness.

Worked in Fields
She was born September 18, 1825 in Pennsylvania, near Philadelphia, when John Quincy Adams was president. Her parents were of Holland Dutch ancestry and with their family they lived on a farm, and when "Grandma" was a girl she shared in the work in the hay and corn fields.

When she grew up and she was married and lived for a time in her native town. In 1855 she moved with her family to Sterling, Ill. She had but one child, her daughter with whom she makes her home. She has but one grandchild, Walter Sackett of Fort Collins, Colo., and his two daughters, Mariana and Elizabeth are her only great grandchildren.

Father Had Long Life
When she was enrolled in The Glendale Evening News Sunset club Mrs. Hagey said, "My father lived to be 99 years old. He always said he would live to be 100, (Continued on page 4)

ACADEMY TO OPEN
FOR ADVENTISTS

Denominational School Will Be Housed in New Buildings

When the Glendale Academy of the Seventh Day Adventist denomination opens Tuesday, September 25, the largest enrollment in the history of the institution is anticipated, exceeding even the closing record of 289 pupils last June, according to D. A. Ochs, principal.

This enrollment will be accommodated in three buildings that are on the beautiful fifteen-acre tract at the east limits of the city, in the picturesque Sycamore canyon, among the Verdugo hills, just a quarter of a mile northeast of the new Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital plant rising at a cost of $500,000.

Buildings Described
Chief of the academy buildings is a new two-story stucco structure, just being completed. This building comprises on the first floor a large main hall, four spacious and well-lighted classrooms, two offices, a library and an auditorium seating 500 people.

The other two buildings, which were moved from the former location on North Everett street, near the Adventist church, are in close proximity to the new building, set in a grove of live oaks. One structure provides for the lower grades, the other for the manual training department.

Twelve Grades in School
All grades from the first to the twelfth are included at the Glendale Academy. The present year marks the third for the upper four grades, the lower grades having been established since 1907, when the local Adventists, with the co-operation of the educational department of the organization, founded the school, desirous of educating their children along denominational religious lines as well as along the lines of general knowledge of a non-sectarian character, as taught in the public schools.

The Glendale Academy is therefore locally financed, in the main, representing at the present time an investment of considerably over $100,000 in buildings, land and equipment. The new building alone cost $32,000, it is reported by Principal Ochs.

Train Missionaries
The chief purpose of the institution is "to train young people for the various missionary enterprises carried on by this denomination in all parts of the world," states the 1922-24 catalog, just issued. This training embraces the same general subjects as those taught in the public schools, with in addition a careful religious education along Seventh Day Adventist lines. The standards are said to be very high, both morally and physically, as well as intellectually, the school's slogan being "Where only the best is good enough."

Preparation is given at the Glendale Academy for entrance into the Adventist colleges, such as the Pacific Union College at St. Helena, Calif. It is a non-boarding institution, but lunches are served daily, the food prepared by pupils of the domestic science classes, under careful supervision of capable teachers.

Offer Opportunities
Many social opportunities are offered the students at the Glendale Academy, according to Principal Ochs, among them the Missionary Volunteer Society, the Associated Students, the College Key (a student paper published every six weeks), a splendid library, physical inspection, and many wholesome entertainments. Neither dancing nor smoking are permitted at the academy, being contrary to the Adventist faith.

Among the courses taught by the capable staff of twelve teachers are Bible, Old Testament history, New Testament history, general American and denominational history, English, Latin, Spanish, mathematics, physiology and hygiene, geometry, biology, woodwork, sewing, domestic science, agriculture and music.

The faculty for the year opening September 25 comprises: principal, D. A. Ochs, W. B. Dart, Pauline A. Sturges, W. F. Van Atta, Rika H. Hartog, Lucille Serles, Mabel M. De Groot, Louise J. Weisenhutter, Esther Johnson, Charlotte Jewell and two others not yet selected.

Dannel's Recovery to Take Months, Report

Harry E. McCartney, of Hayward and McCartney realtors, returned home late Saturday from a hurried trip to San Diego to see Luther J. Dannel, who is in a San Diego hospital suffering from injuries received in an accident a week ago last night. Mr. Dannel has been in the employ of Hayward and McCartney, and when Mr. McCartney returned to Glendale last week from the mountains and learned of the accident he hurried south immediately. He states that Mr. Dannel is in a hospital, under the care of two special trained nurses and expert physicians, and that he is receiving the best of care and will probably be moved to a Glendale hospital in four or six weeks.

His injuries are very serious, however, and while the physicians are confident that there is no danger of paralysis or nerve disorders, Mr. Dannel will have to remain on his back for six or eight months and will then be unable to ever undertake any manual labor.

According to Mr. McCartney, Mr. Dannel is heartily appreciative of the sympathy of his Glendale friends and expressed his thankfulness that it was he who was so seriously injured instead of two friends who were with him.

It is the wish of his attending physicians that no one try to see him before ten days or two weeks.

Dr. E. C. Fortien Will Speak Thursday Night

Dr. E. C. Fortien of Los Angeles is to be the lecturer Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium at 150 South Brand boulevard. He will speak on "Febrile Diseases," and his lecture will have stereoscopic illustrations. The lecture will be given under the auspices of the California State Society, and all Glendaleans are invited to attend.

REALTOR IN NORTH

Harley G. Preston, a member of the firm of Finlay & Preston, realtors, 131 South Brand boulevard, who, with Mrs. Preston, is spending a vacation in and around San Francisco, writes that the weather up there is cold. H. L. Finlay, the other member of the firm, declares that Mr. Preston wrote his card before the forest fires began warming up the bay region.

TWO CARS COLLIDE

A collision occurred on South San Fernando road about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon between cars driven by Fred Harvey of 126 Franklin court and A. G. Power of Hermosa Beach.

Glendale High School

Gymnasium classes at Glendale Union High school are extremely crowded at present, an average of nearly two hundred, to be found in each. Coaches Hayhurst, Butterfield, and Wolfe are being kept busy calling the roll, straightening the verdant scrubs out, and performing numerous other duties.

Gym lockers have been given out and a tax of 25 cents assessed on each student. Owing to the crowded conditions, each locker must satisfy the needs of two pupils, although the football candidates are allowed to have separate places for their special benefit.

The delegation from Portland, Me., to Portland, Ore., is on the way back home. In its special train, after a flying trip down the coast that included a "look-see" at Los Angeles and environs.

The Pine Tree delegation was met at the station by scores of representatives from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, together with members of various Maine state societies, and taken on an automobile tour of the countryside.

It was the purpose of the Maine delegation to promote Down East trade through the Panama canal, in co-operation with Los Angeles and San Francisco shippers and manufacturers.

Look Out! Explosion
Explodes This Week

The first issue of the G. U. H. S. Explosion will make its appearance this week, probably today. The journalism classes are working hard to write and get the copy ready for print and are succeeding in ferreting out the news from every source.

Loren Scoville, editor-in-chief this year, has promised the students one of the peepiest papers ever published in Glendale Union High school.

Horace Anderson, business and advertising manager, has proved his ability by securing enough ads to insure partial support of the Explosion, the rest being gained through the sale of Student body tickets and special benefits.

Glendale Champions
Will Not Go East

No delegates from the Glendale club will hurl shoes at the national tournament and convention in Cleveland, September 19 to 24, under the auspices of the National Horseshoe Pitchers' association, according to George T. Paine, 351 Ivy street, president of the local tossers.

Harold Faler, 15-year-old Akron High school boy, will defend his title as national champion, Mr. Paine states, and Mrs. Mayme Francisco, of Muskegon, Mich., will defend her title as world's woman champion pitcher.

Diet and Health

Author of "Diet and Health, with Keys to the Calories"

Botulism
Botulism is a severe poison caused by eating foods infected with Botulinum germs. The word botulism is taken from the word botulus, meaning a sausage, because the first authenticated cases of the disease were produced by eating infected sausages, and it is used to be thought that the Botulinum germ would grow only in sausages and meat. It is now known that this germ will also grow in vegetable protein. Botulism is more common in Europe than it is in America.

Botulism also affects cattle, horses and fowls. The disease is known in them as blind staggers, forage poisoning, limberneck, etc. Roseman states that it may be responsible for various types of paralysis in domestic animals, including dogs.

There have been quite a number of human cases recently and there seems to be a need of education along the line of protecting against it.

The poisons from this disease affect the central nervous system. Usually the gastro-intestinal tract does not seem to be affected.

Botulism germs do not grow in the human body. Their effects are produced by the poisons that develop in the food which they contaminate. Most of the cases of Botulism have been traced to sausages and canned food, especially fish and meat. However, other canned foods may be contaminated if they are decomposed at all, or if in the canning sufficient heat is not used to kill the germs if they are present.

Thorough heating to the boiling point destroys the poisons, so it is a safe plan to bring to a boiling point any canned vegetables or meats or fish.

Do not eat any food that shows gas. Do not even taste the food, because merely tasting such infected food has proved fatal. Botulism does not always produce an odor, so the best safeguard is to bring suspected food to the boiling point.

There is no danger from Botulism with fresh food. It is the pickled, the canned or preserved foods that may have the infection. The germ grows only in foods that have protein in them. So fruits, having so little protein, are not liable to be infected.

You should be just as careful to recook home canned goods before serving as you are with the commercial canned foods. These germs may also affect cooked foods, however, especially meats and fish, which have been allowed to stand too long at room temperature. Such meats and fish should not be eaten after 24 hours, unless they are recooked. You can let them cool again if wanted cold.

The treatment for the Botulinum poisoning is a serum treatment which your Health Department would supply. Remembering the points I have made: That if canned foods are sound and are thoroughly sterilized when canning, there is no danger from botulism; but that it is a safe rule to boil all canned foods a few minutes before serving.

Potomac poisoning is due to putrefied proteins, and cooking will not destroy this poisoning. I'll take that up next week. Save this article to go with it.

On the Spur of the Moment

One of our anonymous friends has sent in the prospectus of a new machine that he has just invented. He calls it "the most ingenious contrivance ever sprung upon an unsuspecting public."

"By the simple twist of the wrist," according to the gentleman's claim, "it can be converted into any one of the following useful articles: Jack plane, monkey wrench, stove lifter, glass cutter, scroll saw, safety razor, battle axe, bottle washer, button hook, cherry pitter, weather vane, paint brush, gas lighter, ice tongs, belt buckle, horse clipper, lunch basket, hand-cuts, bit stalk, frown lifter, auto crank, ink stand, nail file, cork-screw, vacuum cleaner, currycomb, bootjack, carpet stretcher, nutmeg grater, potato masher, screwdriver, meat chopper, rolling pin, tack hammer, electric bell, flatiron, can opener, key ring, fountain pen, pipe cleaner, padlock, shoe last, music rack, flower pot, egg beater, cold chisel, catsup strainer, fish scaler, oil can, paper weight, rat trap and cigar clipper, and its very presence in the house wards off flies, rats, mice and other vermin, including bill collectors and book agents."

If this machine will do all that is claimed for it, our anonymous correspondent has a fortune made. No home could possibly be without it, as it will apparently do everything but secure a divorce.

THE GLENDALE

In "Three Ages," Buster Keaton shows that love, like lightning, is an eternal force that comes on through the ages. He proves his point by providing a hilarious six-reel comedy as one could desire. There isn't a dull moment, from the first sequence in the cave age to the last flourish in the modern age.

The various ages demanded by Keaton in this allegorical effusion of wit and humor required particularly stupendous are the coliseum and temple sets in the Roman age.

With Buster Keaton in this, his first feature length comedy, are Margaret Leahy (acclaimed the most beautiful girl in England), Wallace Beery, Lillian Lawrence, Joe Roberts and Horace Morgan. The producer is Joseph M. Schenck.

This is the first of the Zane Grey specials, personally supervised by the author himself. B. E. Loper, manager of the Gateway Theatre, announces that a free auto park has been established adjoining the theatre on the left, to be used exclusively for the convenience of patrons.

First church to use incandescent light was the City Temple, London.

BEAUTY CHATS

ANSWERED LETTERS

Reader:—Any exercises that elongate the spinal column and make the muscles of the back more supple will tend toward adding to the height. The exercises you mention are all very good for this purpose.

E. M. S.:—Fever blisters come from impurities in the system, either from a bad digestion or a cold. In the latter case, the whole system is poisoned because of the depleted action of the skin, and the fever blister is one of nature's ways of relieving the system. Peroxide will help bleach the scar left from these blisters.

Clipping the ends of the hair will help it grow stronger. The sulphur that you are using on your scalp must be good for it, or it would not follow that you hair is so improved by it; in fact, many hair tonics have a little sulphur in them. Shampoo about once in three weeks.

Bobbie:—It sometimes takes several treatments to entirely destroy the roots of superfluous hair, but usually one treatment with the electric needle will kill the hair follicle.

M. E. F.:—An oily skin usually indicates a sluggish condition of the digestive organs. Pimples and blackheads follow naturally. Some help may be gained by treating the trouble locally but the only way to overcome it is to get at the cause for it. A good ointment or a cream in which there is some sulphur. A simple astringent like witch hazel will relieve the oiliness and the blackheads will yield somewhat through cleansing the pores.

Pandora:—There is no way to make the eyes any larger than they are by nature.

Pale Face:—An astigmatism is a defect in the formation of the eye. It is generally supposed that there is no cure for it, but the defect in vision through it is easily corrected in glasses.

Mrs. Anna J.:—A calorie, when used in speaking of food, is a measurement of value, meaning heat producing or vitality. When deciding just what amount of nourishment you need, use the average number of 1200 calories that most people need in a day, and experiment with this watching your weight. If you are overweight then, take the lesser number of calories each day for a time.

Mildred M.:—The white spots that appear sometimes upon the nails are deposits of lime. The cause for them is supposed to be a lack of circulation. A paste made of equal parts of pitch and turpentine will bleach them off. Rub the paste into the nails at night and wear loose gloves to protect the bed linen. A little oil will remove the paste from the finger tips next morning.

E. J. M.:—I am very sorry, but I do not know any place where you could sell the dark brown hair switch.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: As others have been asking you questions I have thought many times I'd like to ask one.

Are the letters in your columns bona fide? I can hardly believe that any girl, or so many, could be so silly as those letters indicate. On the other hand, there are some very queer answers, especially when you uphold the bold, immodest dress of many of the girls and women of nowadays; and a bold manner always goes with immodest dress.

"Anxious Hostess" is right to feel as she does. I have been almost ashamed of my sex when I have seen girls on the street clothed as near like a man as possible. At the present rate they will soon don men's suits entirely. The time was when a woman would be arrested if found wearing such clothes. Boldness and immodesty seem to be the order of the day now.

As this is in the main a criticism I suppose it will find the waste basket. Yours for decency.

MRS. A. M. B. The letters in my column are bona fide. I hardly agree with you regarding their silliness. It is true that some letters seem silly to one of mature judgment, but looking backward I realize that even the simplest problem seems intricate to a young girl. I also feel that for every trivial letter there is one of a grave nature which is interesting and gripping to most of us. In my answers I endeavor to be honest and just, free from prejudice and willing to face new and better social standards.

You object to my approval of knickers. Let me say again that I have never seen anything immodest in the attire which men wear. Unfortunately I have had occasion to question the modesty of the thin, half-clad attire a few women have adopted. Looking at the matter in a broad way, there are not many women out of the vast number in the world who do things to offend. At all times we have had extremes and for that this age is not alone to be criticized.

Women have taken a stride toward greater freedom. If the pendulum has swung too far in the case of some, I do not consider it a matter for alarm. Openness instead of secrecy will eventually reap rich rewards.

I have not felt that I was an admirer of indecency. The difference between us is that we have different viewpoints. My great plea is to demand the right to think things out for ourselves, and to give others the same privilege.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two bobbies, aged fourteen and TODAY—Pony Express Gone Forever; "Notches" on Gun Disguised.—By W. F. Sullivan, St. Louis Staff.

By W. F. SULLIVAN
For International News Service

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.—Although they traveled the same trail in similar fashion to the days of '49, the old days and its thrills are gone and the pony express will never be revived.

Such was the expression of "Pony Frank" Wilmarth, one of the last of the pony express riders, in discussing the reproduction of the "express" between St. Joseph, Mo., and San Francisco.

"The old days are gone and a bunch of young fellows, riding on ponies as we used to and dressed like we used to dress won't bring them back," Wilmarth remarked. "Yes, they're gone and they'll never come back. And yet I'd give my life if I could throw a saddle on a pony, grab a pair of six-shooters, let out a yip and follow the setting sun into the west."

"In the old days, as we were galloping over a trail, not a road, arrows would sometimes whiz by. The only things that whizzed by these new boys was tin lizzies."

"We always used to ride at breakneck speed, a rifle handy, already cocked, so we could jerk

"SOLUTION FOR ECONOMIC RIVALRY OF NATIONS WOULD END WAR," SAYS TARIFF COMMISSIONER

That the only way to obtain permanent peace is to find a solution for the economic rivalry of nations, is the belief of William S. Culbertson, vice chairman of the U. S. tariff commission. Propositions to outlaw war by resolutions show a "naive conception of the modern world," asserts Culbertson. He continues:

"The objective of the war would soon disappear if the external causes tending to make war inevitable were removed, but we cannot stop war by peace resolutions as long as we leave those external causes operating. The efforts of those who seek peace must be concentrated upon the removal of the causes of war and the provision of guarantees of security which will make armed force unnecessary."

War Is Necessary Sequence

"In our modern world we must recognize that war follows in necessary sequence upon causes arising out of these processes of production, trading and financing. Personal political factors necessarily are added to and at times obscure the economic cause of rivalry between nations."

"Not infrequently the economic causes of war are entirely lost sight of at the time of the crisis. Propaganda is resorted to, in the stress of patriotism and sentiment the purposes of the war are summed in a phrase or idealized declaration which may be related only remotely to the basic causes of trouble."

"Wars are frequently ascribed to political differences, and personal differences which may be the immediate cause of the conflict, but which have arisen from more fundamental economic differences existing between warring nations. The complexity of modern life is such that even the close observer often fails to realize the forces which are operating. But this is not strange since the very leaders in the business of producing, trading and financing seldom understand the political consequences which may follow upon their daily acts."

Wars of False Security

"National security and the preservation of world peace depend upon an analysis of the economic basis of our society, and the provision of means of adjusting economic disputes before they reach the state of political differences between nations. Nations which are at peace today can urge themselves into a false security through peace societies and through platitudes referring to their past relations. But if economic rivalry is permitted to go on unrestrained, unsuspecting peoples will awake some morning and find themselves at war. War is not a necessary accompaniment of human relationships, but the causes of war are embedded in our economic life, and if they are not removed war follows inevitably upon them."

Competition between two national groups for markets, sources of raw materials and opportunities to invest capital, if persisted in and if vital to national welfare, sooner or later reflects itself in rivalry between governments and peoples. This may be proper or improper. But, before we can have an intelligent opinion on it, we must recognize that it exists.

"To speak of the economic causes of war has been considered improper and even disloyal. It must not be so any longer. If the menace of modern war, which now is the curse and disgrace of our civilization, is to be removed we must know what we are fighting about."

10 Years Ago Today

From Evening News Files

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Shaw of Park avenue entertained last Wednesday night in honor of their twelfth wedding anniversary.

Work was commenced this morning on Broadway between Brand and Central by the concrete construction gang, which is to put in the concrete gutters on either side of the street.

Next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the ceremony of laying the cornerstone at Tropic for the new Methodist church will take place.

Rev. E. E. Francis, the new minister at the Christian church, officiated for the first time at the services yesterday and made a most favorable impression.

They were looking down into the depths of the Grand Canyon, says the Chicago Herald.

"Do you know," asked the guide, "that it took millions and millions of years for this great abyss to be carved out?"

"Well, well!" ejaculated the traveler, "I never knew this was a government job."

SUFFERED FIVE YEARS FROM KIDNEYS

"I suffered with kidney trouble for five years or more. I could not sleep at night and I was always tired after coming home from work, and my back ached," writes John R. Gordon, Danville, Ill. "I secured some FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS and after a few treatments I felt better and could work with more ease, became stronger and could sleep better. For quick relief from Backache, Rheumatic pains, and Kidney and Bladder trouble use FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS."

Marching with American Legion

Guidance of American participation in the conference of the Interallied Veterans' Federation in Brussels, where it is proposed to prepare an agenda for international peace, is in the hands of a committee of American Legion officials, who recently arrived in Europe on the Leviathan. National Commander Alvin Owsley headed the legion party, but will take no part in the actual deliberations of the conference, to be attended by delegates representing fifteen millions of former service men. The committee is headed by Col. H. Nelson Jackson, of Burlington, Vermont.

This committee has secured detailed information relative to participation of the United States in such a program for world peace. Basing work on the manifesto of the Interallied Veterans' Federation, promulgated at the 1922 convention in New Orleans, the members of the delegation have an accumulation of the views of prominent citizens on the program outlined. The manifesto declared unqualifiedly for establishment of a "world court" to "outlaw war," it demanded suppression of disloyal persons who sought to overthrow governments existing by will of the people; it supports the breaking off of trade relations with nations that maintain large armies for aggressive purposes; and it dictates a policy of opposition to territorial aggrandizement.

In an effort to ascertain the viewpoint of leading Americans, Commander Owsley directed the sending of a letter to nearly a hundred leaders of the nation, with a request for an expression on the possibilities of such a program. The response to this was most satisfying to the legion leader, little criticism being voiced, except in actual phraseology of the instrument. President Harding, before his death had written: Chairman Jackson of the committee, concurring in the policies set forth in the manifesto. He said: "I do not subscribe to unconditional agreement in every detail, but as a general enunciation of principles and purposes, the manifesto lays down a very wholesome program which gives great promise of promoting peace."

In addition to Commander Owsley and Chairman Jackson, other members of the delegation to the Brussels convention are: Brig. Gen. Roy Hoffman of Oklahoma City; Brig. Gen. L. R. Gignilliat of Culver, Ind.; Col. H. H. Polk, Des Moines, Ia.; Col. Ernest C. Thompson, Amarillo, Tex.; Maj.

Col. H. Nelson Jackson.

R. E. Condon, of New York City; and Jerome S. Stone, of Wichita Falls, Tex.

So that American Legion members who visit the national convention to be held in San Francisco in October, may not lose their way, the convention is supplying legion posts with maps of the city. These maps are marked with all places of interest to the visiting legionnaires and other guests, and give descriptions of the sights to be seen in and around the Golden Gate city. The maps are being distributed throughout the entire 11,000 posts of the legion.

Adventures of Billy Whiskers

By Frances Trego Montgomery

In yesterday's story Billy Whiskers loses Nannie but finds his old friend Stubby the little dog, and Button, the black cat.

"Bless my soul! It isn't them in flesh, it is? I must be dreaming. Now to surprise them!" but just as he was about to speak, he heard Stubby say:

"Tell you what, Button, I have about given up hopes of our ever finding Billy and Nannie in this big place."

"Me, too, Stub, for it is such a long way out here and there are so many dangers to face to reach California, that they may never have reached the exposition at all."

"I don't believe they have," replied Stubby.

"Oh, you don't, do you? Well,

"You just mean to say you have lost her, do you. And you lying still and taking a nap with her lost?" said Button. "That doesn't seem like you in the least."

"Not so fast, my fond Button. I only dropped down here to rest and think out a plan to find her," and then Billy told them what he knew of Nannie getting lost. And though both Stubby and Button were sorry she was lost, they had to laugh when Billy recounted how the stuffed animals had fooled him as well as Nannie, and how he had made a fool of himself by butting the goat.

"They must be wonderfully done to trick you, Billy," remarked Stubby.

"They are, and when we find Nannie, I will take you to see them. But first tell me how in the world you fellows happen to be here."

"Well, you see it was this way," said Stubby. "When we came back from our short trip to the farm and found you and Nannie had started for the Panama-San Francisco exposition, we tried to stick around and amuse ourselves on the farm, but without you two, things were too slow."

"Tomorrow story will tell more of the three chums and their search for the missing Nannie."

A class in fourth grade geography was having difficulty in studying about the sun, says Judge. After a very discouraging lesson the teacher attempted to make a summary. "Can anyone tell me," he said, "what we get from the sun?"

No one replied for some time. At last one young hopeful raised her hand eagerly.

"All right, Minnie," said the teacher, "you may tell us."

"Freckles," came the reply.

The lady beckoned to the door-man and said: "Call me a cab."

"A yellow cab, mum, or a black and white?"

"Can you call me a cerise and electric blue?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARUS

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggily was hopping through the woods, the rabbit gentleman heard a voice calling:

"Now be careful! Watch out or you'll fall! Oh, where you go?"

And another voice answered:

"There, mother, I didn't fall after all, and I caught the bug, too!"

"Dear me! This is rather strange!" thought Uncle Wiggily to himself as he twinkled his pink nose. "Perhaps I am near a circus tent, and some one is trying to tempt me with a butterfly, or something of the kind."

So the rabbit gentleman looked through the trees, but he only saw two birds, with long, sharp bills, perched in a tree. One bird was larger than the other, and as the rabbit gentleman watched, the smaller bird leaned away far over the limb where he was perched.

"Look out, you'll surely fall now!" chattered the other bird. "Oh, but you make me so dizzy doing that. Oh, your going to fall!"

Then the smaller bird, after leaning over so far that he almost turned completely around the tree branch, laughed and said:

"There, mother, I didn't fall, and I caught another bug."

"This is very curious. I must see what it's all about," thought Uncle Wiggily. So he hopped over beneath the tree where sat the two birds. "What is the meaning of all this?" he asked.

"Oh, how do you do?" Uncle Wiggily greeted the larger bird. "We are woodpeckers, you know, and I have been teaching my little boy bird how to dig for worms and bugs inside the trees."

"And sometimes the worms and bugs are on the outside of the bark," chirped in the little boy bird.

"Yes, that is right," agreed Mrs. Woodpecker. "And my little boy leans so far over to reach the underside of the limb, that I'm afraid he'll fall off and hurt himself. He makes me so dizzy!"

"What is his name?" asked Uncle Wiggily, politely.

"Well, when he first came out of the egg shell we called him Clipper," answered Mrs. Woodpecker. "But since he has taken to standing on his head when he reached under a limb to pick off a bug—since then I call him Dizzy Izzy."

"And a very good name it is, I'm sure," said Uncle Wiggily, with a polite twinkle of his pink eye. "Did you ever fall down, Dizzy Izzy from leaning over too far?"

"Not yet," answered the little boy woodpecker bird.

"But I'm sure he will, some day!" said Mrs. Woodpecker. "Oh, there he goes again! He makes me so dizzy!" And she held one claw up in front of her eyes as Dizzy Izzy leaned away over, almost half way around an over, almost half way around an over branch to pick off a bug on the underside.

"There I am! Didn't fall at all!" piped up Izzy as he caught the bug in his beak, and Uncle Wiggily had to laugh, it was so funny.

Well, the rabbit gentleman said good-bye to the woodpecker birds and hopped on to look for an adventure, and all of a sudden, out from the bushes jumped the Fuzzy Fox, catching Uncle Wiggily by the ears.

"Ah, now for some nibbles!" howled the Fox. "Let me see, which ear shall I nibble first—the left or the right? I think I'll try the right one first—and"

But just then there was a rustling in the leaves of the trees overhead and, looking up, Uncle Wiggily saw Dizzy Izzy, the woodpecker bird. Izzy was leaning away far over a branch.

"Be careful! Don't fall!" cried Uncle Wiggily, forgetting his own troubles by trying to help some one else.

"To whom are you talking?" snarled the Fox.

"That bird up there," and Uncle Wiggily pointed. "He's leaning so far over and around the limb. Oh, look out, Izzy!" cried the bunny.

"Yes, don't you dare fall on me!" howled the Fox. But Dizzy Izzy leaned over farther and farther and farther—and then—all of a sudden—down off the limb he fell—right on the head of the Fox, and the sharp beak of Dizzy Izzy stuck the Fox on his soft nose.

"Ouchie wow! Oh, Zowie!" howled the Fox. And he took his paws from Uncle Wiggily's banner.

Eight times emerging from the flood She mewed to every watery god Some speedy aid to send. No Dolphin came, no Nereid Nor cruel Tom nor Susan heard—A favorite has no friend!

From hence, ye beauties! undeceived, Know one false step is ne'er retrieved, And be with caution bold; Not all that tempts your wandering eyes And heedless hearts, is lawful prize, Nor all that glistens, gold!

—Thomas Gray.

POEMS That LIVE
ON A FAVORITE CAT, DROWNED IN A TUB OF GOLD FISHES
'Twas on a lofty vase's side, Where china's gayest art had dyed The azure flowers that blow, Demurest of the fabled kind, The pensive Selima, reclined, Gazed on the lake below.
Her conscious tail her joy declared; The fair round face, the snowy beard, The velvet of her paws, Her coat that with the tortoise vies, Her ears of jet, and emerald eyes— She saw and purr'd applause.
Still had she gazed, but 'midst the tide Two angel forms were seen to glide, The genii of the stream; Their scaly armour's Tyrian hue Through richest purple to the deeps betrayed a golden gleam.
The hapless nymph with wonder saw: A whisker first, and then a claw, With many an ardent wish She stretched, in vain, to reach the prize—the fabled kind, What female heart can gold despise?
What cat's averse to fish? Presumptuous maid! With looks triumphant, and again she bent, Nor knew the gulf between— Malignant fate sat by and smiled— The slippery verge her feet beguiled; She tumbled headlong in! Eight times emerging from the flood She mewed to every watery god Some speedy aid to send. No Dolphin came, no Nereid Nor cruel Tom nor Susan heard— A favorite has no friend!

EAGLE ROCK

NEW FIRE ZONES TO TAKE EFFECT

Map Showing Boundaries on Display at City Hall, Effective Sept. 29

The new fire zone boundaries, which go into effect September 29, are shown on the map now on display in the building department, City Hall, East Colorado boulevard, and appear as follows:

Colorado boulevard from Townsend to College View avenues and Central avenue from just north of Colorado boulevard to Adams avenue. Within this area nothing but fireproof structures may now be erected. This includes Class A, B and C structures, as defined by the Los Angeles city ordinances.

Library Gets Spanish Books
The Los Angeles Public Library has loaned the Eagle Rock branch a number of Spanish books, among them several novels, reports Mrs. Blanche A. Gardiner, librarian. Students and others interested in this language will, therefore, have the pleasure of reading in the original. The books have been loaned for a period of six months. A number of French books will soon be added to this list, Mrs. Gardiner reports.

A pleasant custom is that of the Eagle Rock Auto Camp, which prescribes that there shall be a community dance every time the floor of a new cottage is laid. Last Tuesday night another of these novel affairs was held, all residents of the camp thoroughly enjoying themselves. Within the last fortnight, three families who have been making the camp their temporary home, purchased homes of their own.

Cake with Eleven Stars
Chapter No. 313, Order of Eastern Stars, celebrated its eleventh birthday Tuesday night at the Masonic temple, in the very room where, eleven years ago, it was organized.

After a delicious dinner, solos by Mrs. P. M. Custer, readings by Mrs. Evelyn Pierce of Glendale, solos by Mrs. Kraus and plantation readings by Mrs. Elgie Lowry Fischer were enjoyed by everyone, after which came dancing, with more refreshments later.

The large birthday cake, in white and yellow, bearing the inscription: "Eagle Rock Chapter, 313," and in opposite corners "1911" and "1923," was lighted with eleven candles of colors as they appear in the "Star."

Mrs. C. B. Dirks, chairman of the entertainment committee, was assisted by the following in the preparation of the dinner and celebration: Mr. and Mrs. David M. Ward and Mesdames Benjamin, Carey, Morrison and Reed.

Local and Personal
The Professional and Business Women's club met last Thursday night at the home of the president, Mrs. E. D. Snow, when plans were made for the winter activities, particularly for the rally meeting scheduled for the second Thursday in October.

B. B. Martosoff, deputy clerk, advises the residents and property owners, in the interest of tree preservation, that inasmuch as Eagle Rock is now a part of Los Angeles, trees and parkings in front of properties must be cared for by the owners, as the city ordinances make no provision for such attention. No trees may be removed from parkways, moreover, without consulting the city authorities, Mr. Martosoff advises.

M. Rowland of Central avenue is visiting his daughter in Baggins, Calif., Mrs. Ruth Baggins, for whose husband's family the town is named.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harrison and daughter, Gloria, and son, Hewitt, spent last week at Hermosa Beach, with the Eagle Rock colony. They were guests one afternoon of Mr. Harwood, at a reception to the faculty of the Hermosa Beach schools.

take physical training in the new plant also is puzzling the board. Mr. Moyse calls attention to the fact that no funds will be available for the construction of a gymnasium unless the present plant is sold or a special bond issue is approved.

THAT MORNING LAMENESS

If you are lame every morning, and suffer urinary ills, there must be a cause. Often it's weak kidneys. To strengthen the weakened kidneys and avert more serious troubles use Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on this woman's testimony.

Mrs. J. M. Derr, 757 Earlham St., Pasadena, Cal., says: "The first symptom of kidney complaint in my case was backache. When I first got up in the morning, there was a lameness and soreness through my kidneys and across my loins, but, after I had been on my feet a while about the house, the pain eased up a little. I was extremely nervous and became easily excited. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and one box cured the backache and the nervousness left me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—Get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Derr had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

TUJUNGA

$6000 PAID FOR 6 BUSINESS LOTS

Corner of Pine and Michigan Sold to Kilbourne and Sylva, Garage Men

Kilbourne & Sylva, proprietors of the Valley garage on Michigan avenue, have purchased six lots in the Gem of Tujunga tract on Michigan avenue, comprising seventy-five feet fronting on the highway, on which they plan to erect a modern garage building. This is one of the most important transactions made in Tujunga real estate recently.

The property is located at the junction of Pine street and Michigan, one of the choicest business locations to be found, and sold for $6,000.

The purchasers are agents for the Chevrolet car and plan to build a garage and salesroom large enough to meet their growing needs.

Richard J. Smith, contractor and builder, has been awarded the contract for the new office building to be built for the Sunland Rural Telephone Company in Tujunga. It will be located at the corner of Palm and Los Angeles streets.

Construction work will be of the approved type and the building will be finished in stucco. Mr. Smith expects to have it ready for occupancy in about sixty days.

Part of Big Scheme
This is one feature of the general improvement scheme that the telephone company expects to carry out in the next year. The company is to be reorganized with an increased capitalization. A modern switchboard will be installed, more long-distance trunks will be added and the service generally improved, with a reduction of the number of parties on party lines.

The State Railroad Commission has granted the telephone company an increase in rates. These will take effect as soon as the necessary improvements are effected.

300 In School
Enrollment at the Tujunga school this year shows a substantial gain over last year. The opening day brought out 309 this year, against 250 last, with a total of 277 as the highest number during the entire term.

At the end of the first day Principal Ake and the teaching staff had the problem of overcrowded rooms to solve. The general trend of their thoughts was to put the situation up to the school board members and let them find the answer.

Temporary arrangements of class enrollments were as follows: Kindergarten, under instruction by Miss Jones, twenty-three; first grade, Miss Johnston, forty-nine; second grade, Mrs. Reilly, thirty-two; B third, Mrs. Frank, thirty-eight; A third and fourth, Buckner, fifty-five; A fourth and fifth, Miss Molitz, thirty-three; sixth, Miss Gonzales, thirty-four; seventh, Miss Dadds, twenty-eight; Mr. Ake, twenty-four.

Owing to the crowded condition, some of the classes will be in session only part of the day. The schedule below was arranged, pending changes to be made in allotment.

Schedule of Classes
Kindergarten, 9 to 12.
First grade, 12 to 4:10.
Second grade, 8:30 to 12:40.
B third grade, 12 to 4:10.
A third grade, 9 to 2:30.
B fourth grade, 9 to 3:15.
Fifth grade, 9 to 3:30.
Sixth grade, 9 to 3:30.
Seventh grade, 9 to 3:30.
Eighth grade, 9 to 3:30.

According to present conditions there will probably be a shortage of room when the new building, now under construction, is completed. The rapid increase in the population of Tujunga will make necessary additional quarters.

Contractor Weller is rushing work on the new buildings and will have them ready for use at the earliest possible moment. In the meantime half-day sessions will prevail in the lower grades.

Dr. Clarence C. Buck has transferred his real estate activities from San Fernando and is now in business in Tujunga and will operate in the Verdugo hills district again.

George Aiken has entered the insurance business and has taken the agency for sick, accident, life and fire policies.

P.-T. A. ORGANIZES AT MONTE VISTA

First Meeting Being Held This Afternoon at School House

The Monte Vista Parent-Teachers association has resumed activity following the summer vacation under the leadership of Nanine S. Kevane, president, and an efficient staff of officers.

The first meeting of the school year is scheduled for this afternoon at the school house. Mrs. Kevane notified the members with the following:

"We have all had a rest and your officers are anxious to get in and accomplish something. We want to start the meetings out with a big open house, a social half hour after the regular business and program, so those wishing to donate cakes, cookies or sandwiches, may leave them with the committee on refreshments."

"It is our desire to secure new members in order that we may, in the future, commence the activities for which we are banded together, child welfare, such as better teaching facilities, hot lunches at cost, milk for the undernourished, rest rooms for the teachers, supervised recreation and Americanization."

"School improvements are more readily obtained when strong public opinion approves and demands them and no group can so successfully influence school officials and public opinion as an interested and enthusiastic organization of parents."

Speaks of Programs
"The programs and discussions at our meetings will open the eyes of many parents to responsibilities and privileges they never before realized."

"The worth-while work of the Parent-Teacher association in the interest of child welfare is receiving hearty endorsement and cooperation from our governor, the state board of education and the teachers' colleges."

"It is well known that the amount of work an organization may do is limited to the amount of money available with which to do it, and our work is national in scope, so let each member realize the terrific force of the blow that may be struck against evil conditions surrounding childhood when more than half a million men and women stand behind that action."

"By your aid in bringing into our local association new members we will be able to swell the national membership to one million. We feel that every parent in our school district should be a member of our local P.-T. A."

Eighty-eight in School
Principal J. H. Creighton reported thirty-four pupils enrolled in the sixth, seventh and eighth grade classes, twenty-three in the intermediate grades under Miss Hazel Pester and Mrs. E. A. Miller has thirty-one in the primary grades, making a total of eighty-eight for the school.

Buster Keaton has been taking scenes in a comedy at the park and on a set built in the meadow across from the park. He is directing his company personally. The story of the picture is of the early railroad days in this country.

Home Team Wins

Tujunga Valley won a fast game from Pasadena N. W. A. team Sunday at Monte Vista park, 15 to 7. This makes the fifth straight win for Hatch, Tujunga Valley pitcher. Allen, at short, has been playing a fast game. Both he and Osborne at second base have been playing errorless ball. Waite, captain, and third baseman, got four out of five at the bat, and handled six chances without a bobbie.

but he died three months before his 100th birthday. When he was 90 years old he got out and ploughed a couple of furrows just to prove he could do it."

Collects Poker Debt With Gun, Is Charge

REDDING, Sept. 18.—Attempting to collect a poker debt at the point of a gun and forcing Hans Bue to sign a check for $100, has resulted in R. S. Terry being arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Terry alleges that Bue grabbed his check for $100 from the "pot" in a poker game and refused to return it. The former is alleged to have lain in wait for Bue at Peck's Bridge, where he forced Bue to sign another check with a gun leveled at his head.

Sheriff Sublett swore to the complaint and Terry was arrested at Klamath Falls, Ore.

BURBANK

CONSTITUTION IS TOPIC OF STUDY

Special Church Services Mark Week Devoted to Honor of Charter

Constitution week opened Sunday with special services in all the local churches and continued Monday night at the home of Mrs. Margaret Yale, through whose efforts this week is being observed here, a meeting of the Current Events section of the Women's club taking place, characterized by discussion of the United States constitution.

This noon the Burbank Rotary club made their weekly luncheon hour the occasion for a special consideration of this subject. Tomorrow noon the Kiwanians will do the same, inviting their wives to be present and hear them dilate.

Tomorrow afternoon the W. C. T. U. will convene in the Presbyterian church parlors, at 2:30 o'clock, when "Law Enforcement" will be the topic of their discussion. Judge A. A. Crawford addressing the assemblage, in a presentation of some of his many troubles with the law-breakers, "bootleggers" and otherwise, passing out some very spicy information, it is intimated.

Other events scheduled will make Constitution week in Burbank very effective in calling attention to our Constitution and urging adherence thereto, feels Mrs. Yale.

Sue Officials for $50,000
Judge A. A. Crawford and Police Chief John H. Long of the local "crime department," have been sued for $50,000 damages in the superior court, the claim being that the plaintiffs, Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Burleigh, were rudely awakened in the still of night, not long hence, when their domicile was broken into and various cracks and crannies investigated by the above officers (and (or) their agents," the specific date of August 3 being mentioned in the complaint.

Chief Long was out of town at the time an interview was desired, and Judge Crawford, when approached, was wretched in smiles, but noncommittal. He did, however, admit that a search warrant was issued to enter the Burleigh house, on complaint of neighbors, whose suspicions had been aroused.

It appears that, should the $50,000 damage suit be sustained, this will establish a new high record for value of lost sleep. Those with insomnia, get out your pencils!

Smilers in Big Drive
Every "young man" in Burbank between the ages of 8 and 40 will find himself corralled into some Sunday school each Sabbath morning, if the laids of the local Mystic Smile organization are 100 per cent successful in the new drive they are now launching.

Representatives from practically all Protestant churches in the city are back of the movement. As Rev. L. G. Parker so aptly stated: "It is more important to save one young man than to bring a new manufacturing plant to Burbank."

A special class has been opened at the Baptist church, with other classes at the Christian, Presbyterian and Methodist churches, where these young men will be made welcome each Sunday morning and taught to put their trust in Jesus.

Starting tomorrow morning, a big drive will be launched in the city being divided into eight districts and a captain appointed for each, who will in turn appoint his helpers and be held responsible for the attendance at Sunday school of every young man in his district.

The following men have been elected captains: Harold Powell, Earl Cordery, Glenn Odens, Roland Haefner, Wilbur E. Fluke, Roy Polhemus, F. R. Losee and Claude Rivers.

Christmas Island has 2,000 inhabitants.
